

Rodmell

---

12, 12a, 14, 27

CITY CABS
(01273) 205 205

53

1 Navigation Cottages, BN7 3HF

The garden at Navigation Cottages (Grade II listed) is made up of five connecting sections, each one very different. It has a cottage garden look with a wealth of different plants - some unusual shrubs and old fashioned roses. It could be described as overhanging rather than neat!

Open 27th June, 3rd & 4th July

55

Monks House, BN7 3HF

The former home of Leonard and Virginia Woolf. Planted and maintained by tenants on behalf of The National Trust, the garden has borders, an orchard, ponds, allotment and magnificent trees. Above all it has the most wonderful atmosphere. The writing lodge, where Virginia Woolf wrote many of her novels will be open, but the house will not. For this special charity opening NT members will also need to pay £2 entrance. Garden Gadabout day tickets accepted.

Open 27th June

54

5 Martens Field, BN7 3HR

This small south facing downland front garden has views of the countryside and nearby fields. Reclaimed sea-wood and metal sculptures created by the owners hide amongst the mixture of meadow flowers and herbaceous flowers.

Open 27th June 3rd & 4th July

Garden and Bed and Breakfast

Garden Open days for 2010 2nd weekend in June and then the first weekend in every month July to October 2010

Teas and Home Baking, Plant sales, Rare breed sheep and pigs

Admission charge Adult £5.00 Child £2.50

Also open by appointment throughout the year. Just give us a call to arrange a visit or even come to stay at our boutique B & B !

Sussex Prairies at Morlands Farm, Wheat-sheaf Road, Henfield, West Sussex, BN5 9AT

Tel - 01273 495902

Email - morlandsfarm@btinternet.com
www.sussexprairies.co.uk